LB 386, 389

favor say aye. All those opposed nay. LB 389 advances.

CLERK: Madam President, before we proceed to the next amendment, announcement. Natural Resources will meet, Exec Session, underneath the south balcony now. Natural Resources, underneath the south balcony now. Senator Chambers, I now have your motion to return for AM2311, Senator. (See page 2130 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Chair recognizes Senator Chambers to open on the motion to return.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Clerk, which one is that, if you don't mind?

CLERK: The College of Information Science and Technology at UNO, Senator, elimination thereof.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I had said that I am going to do my battle, my main battle on LB 386. This is an amendment that I do want to consider. But what I'm going to do, Mr. Clerk, because Senator Wesely...I'm going to withdraw my amendments and file them behind Senator Wesely's amendment.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The motion is withdrawn.

CLERK: Madam President, Senator Wesely would move to return. Senators Wesely, Chambers, and Wehrbein, 2316. (AM2316 is found on page 2129 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Chair recognizes Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you. Madam President and members, this amendment is in follow up to our discussion yesterday and this morning. As I think many of us said, Senator Chambers raised a very important issue dealing with the question of minorities and women faculty at the university, and hiring issues that have been involved there. I think there's been a general agreement about goals. There have been agreement about the desire to do something. And, and there's agreement that we haven't done enough. President Smith talked about that this morning. This amendment talks about the intent of the Legislature to move
